Moved to Coblenz or Cologne

(By Associated Press)

Paris, April 19.—The Allied Reparations Commission announced today that it had given Germany until April 22 to transfer the gold holdings of the Reichsbank, the German Imperial bank, to the Coblenz and Cologne branches of the bank.

If Germany refuses to comply with the ultimatum, the commission, it states, will require the immediate delivery of the gold to the commission itself.

In the event of the transfer of the gold to the branches named, the sum may continue to figure as part of the balance of the Reichsbank, the commission explained, but the German government would have no right to dispose of it without obtaining previous authority from the commission to do so.

The latest figures on the gold holdings of the Reichsbank, contained in the bank's statement for April 7, showed that on that date they were 1,091,602,000 marks.

Leaders Are Opposed

(By Associated Press)

London, April 19.—Steps to bring into operation the Irish act providing for home rule in the island were taken today by the British government.

This law, which was described by King George as "the fruit of thirty years of ceaseless controversy," was passed by Parliament on December 21 last and received royal assent a short time later.

Sinn Fein leaders in Ireland have been outspoken in their opposition to the measure. Elections of members of the northern and southern Irish parliaments will be held on May 3 under present plans.

Sheriffs will be directed to proceed with the preliminary steps of the election, but it seems probable the southern sections of Ireland would ignore the provisions of the law.

Ulster was understood to have made arrangements for election, and an announcement was made last month that the Ulster Parliament would open on June 21, possibly under royal auspices.

In estimating the amount involved in the rebate liabilities of landlords who have ignored decisions of the district rent commission, members of the commission declared today that of a total of approximately five thousand decisions handed down, fifty percent had been ignored.

Upon Arrival in New York

(By Associated Press)

New York, April 19.—Crowds cheered President Harding when he arrived here at 2:30 p. m. today from Washington for the unveiling of the statue of Bolivar in Central Park.

The cheering continued as the nation's chief executive on his first visit to this city since his inauguration motored from the Pennsylvania station to the Waldorf-Astoria hotel before proceeding up Fifth avenue to the scene of the ceremonies.

When his automobile emerged from the great stone driveway of the station President Harding found thousands of persons massed on the streets and on the roofs of buildings to bid him welcome.

From station to hotel the president's head was uncovered most of the way for cheer followed cheer and he was constantly lifting his hat.

PET BILL OF

Now Ready For Signature—Democrats Will Fight It.

(By Associated Press)

Columbus, April 19.—The storm which broke yesterday on the administration's reorganization bill abated today, and with the same vote as the measure was passed by the House several weeks ago that body concurred in amendments made by the Senate. The bill will be ready for Governor Davis signature as soon as it is printed and signed by the presiding officers of both houses.

Senator J. F. Burke, Republican, of Elyria, who led the fight in the Senate against the adoption of the emergency clause announced tonight that a law firm of Cleveland has been retained to test the emergency clause before the Supreme Court.

As soon as the House had concurred W. W. Durbin, chairman of the Democratic State Executive Committee issued a statement attacking the measure and the emergency clause and asserting that there will be a referendum on it this fall that will result in its repudiation by the voters.

Mr. Durbin announced that former Attorney General T. S. Hogan, former Supreme Judge Oscar W. Newman, former Secretary of War Newton D. Baker, former Chief Justice Hugh L. Nichols and Attorneys George B. Okey and James L. Boulger of Columbus have been retained by the Democratic committee.

Employees of the offices will be armed with weapons.

HUGHES ANSWERS
CHARGES MADE IN BRITISH HOUSE

(By Associated Press)

Washington, April 19.—Secretary Hughes has informed the British Government that if the American consul at San Jose used influence to have the new government in Costa Rica annul concessions covering potential oil lands obtained from the old Tinoco regime by a company in which British capital was interested, he did so without authority from the State Department.

At the same time, however, the Secretary of State is understood to have said that the United States had never recognized any of the acts of the Tinoco administration and that even if the consul did use his influence, as has been intimated in the British House of Commons, the American Government could not understand how any such action during the period prior to the annual would furnish necessarily an occasion for criticism by the British government.

At 10:15 the cortège reached the mausoleum where services were held to which only members of the family and private guests were admitted.

HUGHES URGES
RIGID CURB ON IMMIGRATION

(By Associated Press)

Washington, April 19.—Rigid restriction of immigration was recommended today by Secretary Hughes in official documents transmitted to Congress.

They were interpreted by House and Senate leaders as reflecting increased need for the immediate passage of the immigration Bill, limiting admission of aliens for fourteen months, beginning next May 10, to 3 per cent of each nationality resident in the United States in 1910. Debate in the House will begin tomorrow.

"Our restriction on immigration should be so rigid," Mr. Hughes' report said, "that it would be impossible for most of these people to enter the United States."

Particular reference was made to undesirable classes from Balkan cities, Armenia and Russia.

(By Associated Press)

Potsdam, April 19.—Amid the tolling of bells which marked the solemn hour, funeral services for Augusta Victoria, former German Empress, were held today in this, the royal residence suburb of Berlin, which had witnessed so many scenes of splendor in the departed day of Hohenzollern rule.

Over the simple coffin in the mausoleum or antique temple in the Potsdam palace grounds where the services were held, was raised the familiar yellow standard of the ex-empress and at its foot stood the four sons of the former royal couple who were free to attend the services.

Lacking was the presence of the husband, the former emperor and of the eldest son of the family, former Crown Prince Frederick William, exiled in Holland.

Led by the clergy and officers of the ex-empress' own regiment the funeral cortège left the Potsdam railway station near which the body had been guarded over night by faithful mourners after its arrival from Doorn and proceeded shortly before ten o'clock for the mausoleum.

Hohenzollern princes and princesses and other members of the former German royal family in equipages of state were followed by members of the ex-emperor's court and distinguished court and officers among whom were General Hindenburg, Ludendorff, Von Mackensen and Von Kluck.

At 10:15 the cortège reached the mausoleum where services were held to which only members of the family and private guests were admitted.

Columbus, April 19.—After searching all morning near the spot where three bandits held up a Scioto Valley traction car last night, Sheriff Holycross returned at noon today with no tangible evidence.

Four Columbus high school students reported to the sheriff today that they drove past the car at the time of the hold-up and proceeded to Grove Port for aid, but passing autoists refused to heed their cries for help.

The bandits secured about $400 and some jewelry from five passengers. Sheriff Holycross believes the hold-up men are hiding in Columbus.

FATHER AND SON ANNUAL BANQUET MONDAY EVENING

Gymnasium Transformed
Into Scene of Festive Gathering by Dads and Sons.

Effective Program One of Well Arranged Features of Big Event

With a full attendance and highly successful in every feature the annual Fathers and Sons Banquet was held at the Y. M. C. A. Monday evening under the auspices of the Boy's Department of the Young Men's Christian Association.

The big gymnasium had been transformed into a dining hall capable of seating three hundred guests and it was comfortably filled. Dads and sons were seated side by side. Dads without sons were supplied, while sons without dads were soon claimed.

Decorations were simple but used with much effectiveness. Great American flags draped the walls. Candles, with shades of delicate flax, were used on the tables. Carnations added dignity to the speaker's table.

The contributing success of the banquet was the faultless service performed by the girls of the Young Women's Christian Association in the role of pretty waitresses.

During the banquet hour Jimmie Dice's Pepsters kept things lively with the latest selections and they were tireless in their efforts. Never failing applause brought repeated encores. A decided hit was made by Mr. Earl Binns in several vocal selections. He was called back time after time. A dozen boys from the Children's Home were special guests.

Give Opposite Views

One of the forms of speechmaking out of the ordinary on the program was a talk on "If I were a Boy. What Kind of a Boy I'd Be" by Mr. Henry Brownell, and the reply by Kenneth Flee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Flee Columbus avenue, taking as his subject "If I were a Father, the Kind of a Father I'd Be."

The speakers responded to toasts by Mr. C. E. Lloyd who presided.

"You will always be young if you look ahead," said Mr. Brownell. "In all the activities of life look ahead to an honest, clean, pure, upright Christian life."

Mr. Brownell also cautioned the boys in regard to thrift. "Look ahead. Out of every dollar earned try to lay away a portion of it, he said.

In closing Mr. Brownell said, "Boys, the ability to look ahead separates the successful man from the unsuccessful."

The reply was made by Kenneth Flee, a seventh grade lad, and his straight-forward talk, coupled with his manner of delivery, drew long applause.

"Don't be too strict on your sons, fathers," he said. "You were a boy once yourself, you know."

He advised the fathers to be pals with their sons and to enter with them in their play. Also to place at the son's advantage such things as a Y. M. C. A. membership with its gymnasium and all the things that the fellows like.

The reply was made by Kenneth Flee, a seventh grade lad, and his straight-forward talk, coupled with his manner of delivery, drew long applause.

Rev. Rittenhouse Speaks

The third speaker of the evening, who made the main address, was Rev. Daniel F. Rittenhouse, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Columbus.

Speaking straight from the shoulder to the fathers, as well as to the sons, Rev. Rittenhouse delivered a talk that was highly opportune.

Rev. Rittenhouse declared that what the father is the son will attempt to be in every way. He told the fathers to be cautious in setting an example.

"In every home," he affirmed, "there is a judgment seat. And on that judgment seat sits the child. Remember that no eye is so scrutinizing as that of a child."

Problems exist today, it was declared by the speaker, that will require a generation to solve. The boys of today must solve the problem of tomorrow, was his summary of the situation.

Rev. Rittenhouse breathed a note of optimism when he declared that the new world was going to be finer than the old one. He predicted this bright outlook for the future after he had painted a world dripping red with the wars that have kept it in constant turmoil. He said that during the nineteenth century there were but nineteen years when a great war was not in progress in the world and that although in recent years great strides had been made toward the abolition of wars yet it was still a distant vision.

"We do not necessarily need a League of Nations to abolish war."

SAVE 50c to $10.00

On Your Next Frock by Using the Deltor

It shows you how to save from one quarter of a yard to one and three-eighths yards of material.

The saving amounts to $2, $4 and as high as $10 with expensive materials. Even with average-priced materials, it saves more than the cost of the pattern with the Deltor.

Perhaps it's a suit you want or one of those smart sport coats or a trim little dress to wear with your Spring furs or one of those intricate colorful negligées or an evening dress from Paris?

Whatever you want, if it is clothes, you can have it successfully for a negligible cost by following the wonderful patented invention for making your clothes at home.

The DELTOR

is a series of sketches, a picture-lesson enclosed with your new Butterick Pattern, for sale in this store, showing your suit, your dress, from the time you cut it out until it is completely finished. There is just enough printed instruction to make the pictures talk.

Cutting

Cutting charts aren't new? This one is! It doesn't show size 36 only when you have bought 42. It doesn't show it for 40-inch goods when yours is 54. It shows the pattern-drafter's own "trick-lay" for every size and every width of goods. And in so doing, it often saves you dollars in material.

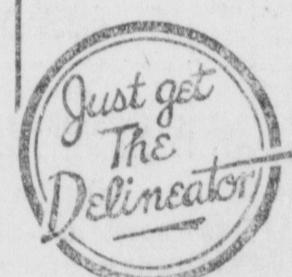

Putting Together

And then— you won't have to debate any more as to what to do first. And whether that's the back or the front of the sleeve. And how the belt goes on. And why, oh! why, you can't seem to make the cuff behave. It's all in your Deltor. In pictures. With nice little brief instructions.

Finishing

And there's a page of inestimable value—a page of finishing instructions, those little big things that make all the difference between a French model and a Sixth Avenue imitation. Not general finishing instructions, but specific instructions for making that one dress, of your material, in your size.

Best of all, when you've made a dress by the new way—the Deltor way—you not only have the dress itself, and all the money you would have spent if you had to buy it ready-made, or go to an expensive dressmaker for it, you have the real beginnings of a dressmaking education.

IMPROVEMENTS MADE AT THE COLONIAL

An improvement has been made by Manager Johnson at the Colonial Theater that is sure to prove popular with the patrons of that playhouse.

Two new machines have been installed and there will be no wait between reels. The booth was enlarged in order to care for the two machines. The improvements insure the best of service without a stop from start to finish.

The same system was recently installed at the Wonderland Theater, also owned by Mr. Johnson.

Marked reductions on Grinders, Shellers, Tedders, Fanning Mills, Ensilage Cutters, etc.

It is well known that International tools are made as good as money and brains can produce. We believe the farmer should be more careful today than ever before in purchasing his farm tools. Our reason for this is that so many lines (apparently standard lines at the time too) are not handled regularly in a town and you are unable to get worn and breakable parts promptly when you are in dire need, consequently you are driven to purchase a new tool for the want of a small repair. Second, we believe a company like the International, make longer lived tools than the ordinary manufacturers. Third, you will always find an International dealer, no difference where you go, with 96 branch houses in the United States near them for quick aid.

Our repair department for the coming harvest is now being prepared for your benefit. We want to work with you. A great many of the reductions offered above are for stock on hand only and subject to prior sale, therefore place your orders early and save money.

BEAR CREATED PANDEMONIUM IN EARLY DAYS

Startling Activities of Pet Bear Kept Town in Up-roar, Says J. N. Wilson.

Animal Finally Killed by Owner After Terrorizing Village of Washington.

Many years ago a prayer meeting was broken up in this city by a black bear, which was owned by Mr. Joseph N. Wilson, and his brother, John L. Wilson.

The incident is one of the many interesting accounts of local happenings in the early days of the city which Mr. Wilson has recently related.

It was about the year 1857 that one summer evening the Rev. S. J. Miller was holding prayer meeting and his little congregation had gathered in the First Presbyterian church then nothing more than a small frame structure.

A black bear bounded in the open front door and running the length of the aisle, jumped through a window just back of the pulpit.

The commotion was soon explained by Joseph and John Wilson, who were chasing the bear in an effort to get it back in its cage. As the bear ran into the churchyard John leaped on it and grabbed the animal by the jaws. The enraged bear tore loose and bit him on the leg above the ankle.

Joseph then tried to catch the bear but he received a torn hand in his efforts.

By this time the alarm spread that "the Wilson bear had escaped and was running wild" and the whole town joined in the pursuit.

After all efforts to catch the bear had failed and it was getting more enraged, each minute the pursuers resolved to kill the animal. Mr. Wilson encountered the bear on a cow path that ran across the hill where the Persinger homestead now stands.

The bear advanced with fangs showing and prepared for the battle. Mr. Wilson was carrying a stone in his hand and with unerring aim he threw it at the animal, but a few feet away.

The bear toppled over as the stone crashed against his skull. Mr. Wilson then cut his throat with a knife.

The bear was brought from Louisiana by Mr. John L. Wilson. It was a cub of but a few days when he was caught and it made the trip on the steamboat up the Mississippi and Ohio rivers, in a box eight by ten inches in diameter.

A constant playmate of the bear was a black dog. They were always together. The playfulness of the bear almost cost the life of the dog says Mr. Wilson.

At that time there was a deep swimming hole in Paint creek, just opposite where the Union Station stands today. The bear liked the water and would swim for hours at a time.

The dog, as the constant companion, was swimming one day with the bear, while Mr. Wilson and his brother were fishing. The dog attempted to swim to the bank, but every time he started for the shore the bear cuffed him over the head. Rocks and sticks thrown by the men did not terrify the bear from trying to drown the dog. Fifteen minutes later the half drowned dog was dragged from the water.

Another trait of the bear that is common to his kind was a liking for honey. One day the bear had just upset some beehives in the yard of Richard Lanum, a preacher and carpenter, when the owner appeared on the scene.

Mr. Wilson tells of the time George Saxon was picking apples when he bear climbed the same tree. Saxon, so it is related, climbed out on a

A. R. STOKESBURY IS APPOINTED LAND APPRAISER

Wilmington is campaigning for a $115,000 hospital, plans for which are already being made.

The city hopes to secure the institution through the assignment by the county of $50,000 for this purpose, while the Catholic Church will donate $50,000 more. The $15,000 represents the donation of Dr. Kelley Hale, of Wilmington, who operates a private hospital, and who donated his fine residence and land as a site for the new hospital.

The institution is to be conducted by the Sisters of the Sacred Heart.

Orders to report at Louisville, Kentucky, on Wednesday morning were received by Mr. Stokesbury with notice of his appointment. He will represent the federal loan bank as appraiser in the state of Ohio. The Bank at Louisville is the only bank in this district of four states loaning the funds of the federal government to farmers.

Mr. Stokesbury's appointment came as a surprise to his many friends here and is the first federal appointment to be made in this section of the state under the new administration.

Mr. Stokesbury left Tuesday morning to report at the Louisville Federal Loan Bank ready to qualify and enter upon the discharge of his duties.

LOCATES HERE

Sergeant J. Masters, of D. T. & I. detective force, who has had headquarters in Springfield, has been moved to this city where he will make his home while looking after the interests of the road between Springfield and Finton.

He is finding women of decided value on its detective force, especially in ferreting out the intricacies of certain sorts of crime. The talent of these feminine sleuths, it is said, is due largely because of their greater success at practicing deception. And it has been found that they can keep a secret.

Many of the women detectives cover assignments at social events where it is necessary for them to wear evening gowns and jewels and to display the social graces.

Women detectives were employed first in London, but now their activities have extended to the provinces.

From a literary point of view, fame consists in having people know you have written a lot of things they haven't read.

There Are Robbers on Your Farm

But it is Possible to Lock Up the Farm so That Their Thefts Can be Stopped.

Weeds are the robbers on your farm.

Cultivating takes more time in the field than any other operation.

Your time is too valuable to put up with poor equipment in doing this important job. You need cultivators that pull light, that can be handled easily, that have the correct balance and that will not fall when you need them the most.

The Moline Plow Company has always been a leader in introducing labor-saving features and better methods of cultivation. We have the type of Cultivator that is especially adapted to do a good job of cultivating for you in less time and with the least exertion to yourself and your team.

A patched up automobile tire may get you to town. But if you are catching a train you will make sure all four tires are good. Look into the condition of your present cultivators now. A new one is an investment that will pay.

Brand Whitlock

While as yet there has been no official declaration by the administration, it seems to be generally understood that the request of King Albert of Belgium that Brand Whitlock be retained at his post, as minister from the United States, will be granted.

The distinguished Ohioan by his fearless conduct during the German invasion of Belgium has endeared himself to the people and the officials of Belgium.

Minister Whitlock has made an enviable record. His exceptional ability is recognized at home and abroad. Even his political opponents freely acknowledge Mr. Whitlock's worth and do not deny that his recall for political reasons would be unwise and harmful to diplomatic and commercial relations with European nations.

In addition to all that Minister Whitlock has been exceedingly independent in political thought and action. He never could be counted upon as a "regular" party man.

On national issues of late years he has been aligned with the Democratic party because it more nearly squared with his political principles. In his home city of Toledo, however, Mr. Whitlock has always been about as much Republican as Democrat in local and state campaigns.

The national administration can scarcely afford to dispense with the services of Brand Whitlock as minister to Belgium in order to place a coveted decoration on the social record of some more fervent politician.

To retain Whitlock would be a handsome recognition of worth and ability, a proof that partisanship is second to patriotism and the good of the public service and gratifying to the people of Belgium.

The national administration has given proof of its broad mindedness in some of the appointments already made, and Ohio proud of her famous sons would rejoice if it was officially announced that Whitlock was to remain in Belgium.

Ohio, among her many famous sons, has none abler than Brand Whitlock.

No Recognition

The letter of Secretary of State Hughes to Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, is reassuring to all lovers of liberty and freedom in government.

Secretary Hughes' statement to Mr. Gompers is that there will be no treaty with Russia and no resumption of trade and commerce so long as the present Soviet regime remains in control.

Americans are anxious that our trade relations with European nations be reestablished at the earliest possible moment, consistent with our own security and under conditions which will reasonably guarantee permanency of trade and diplomatic agreements.

At the same time Americans are fully cognizant of the menace which Soviet Russia holds for the world and especially for this glorious representative democracy of ours, and they want no taint of the "red" autocracy to enter America.

Some things are above price—above measuring in dollars and cents and the vast market which Russia holds out as an inducement to the producers of America is no temptation because of the menace which trade contact with the Soviets carries with it.

There has been tremendous pressure brought to bear on the administration for the resumption of trade with Russia, and, notwithstanding unequivocal announcements formerly made, the activities of the few Americans who are promised enormous profits in Russia trade, have not materially abated.

Secretary Hughes' pronouncements should and doubtless will relieve the anxieties of the more fearful.

There may be some extenuating circumstance excusing Great Britain for resuming trade with Soviet Russia, but it is not apparent to the world. For this nation it seems that no excuse can be offered for even proposing recognition.

In addition to all that, the value of trade with Russia is greatly overestimated. Russia has no excess of raw or manufactured materials for exchange. Her wild anarchy has made production impossible and Russian money is, aside from the comparatively small gold reserve, of no value in the markets of the world.

Russia, in fact, has nothing to exchange and no money to pay.

POETRY FOR TODAY

HILLS OF HOME

After long days when I come
Once more from far roving home,
While I watch with eager eyes
Old loved landmarks, friendly-wise.
Sudden bursting into view,
Sharp etched on the skies' clear blue,
Lo, the hills of homes arise.

Always round the curve they lie
Waiting hid as I draw nigh,
Till I pass the angled bend,
And the last long slope ascend,
And the shortening road runs straight
There to welcome me they wait—
Hills of home, and journey's end.

Hoof beats quickening on the trail—
Grind of train wheels on the rail—
Motor swerving sharp and sheer—
Steamboat racing for the pier—
Curve or headland, break or bend
I must pass, and at the end
Stand the home hills, clean and clear.

Thus, when fate my spirit brings
To the ordained end of things,
I shall come as now I come
Through far spaces wearisome,
Through the shrouding veils that lie
'Twix time and eternity,
Till there blaze against the sky,
Gold and jade—the Hills of Home.

B. AND O. OFFICIALS
SEE HOPEFUL RIFT
IN BUSINESS CLOUD

Signs that the turn in the tide of business depression is near at hand is the belief of Baltimore and Ohio officials. This belief is based, not on recent car loadings nor the showings of gross and net revenue, but upon the increase in the number of orders taken. For instance, according to these traffic officers, February was a greater "order taking" month than January and like wise March excelled February. This, they declare, while not indicating an immediate increase in traffic, does portend a gradual return to normalcy.

Because of this the officers are extending the business getting campaign which has been carried on by the members of the Veterans Association of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, following President Willard's suggestion to the Baltimore lodge of that organization last December that they become traffic solicitors to offset the slump in business. In this connection, Archibald Fries, traffic vice-president, has arranged employees' mass meetings at some of the principal traffic centers through which the railroad operates.

JAZZ FURNITURE AND WALL PAPER
AMONG LATEST

LONDON (By Mail)—"Jazz" furniture, clothing and wall paper were described by Sir Charles C. Allen in an address before the first National Furnishing Trades convention here.

"English furniture has ranked so high in the estimation of the world that one wonders how it comes that in it at this moment a disease is developing of the jazz type," he said. "Will the public buy the jazz types of clothing material we see offered for sale, and the far worse things one finds printed in wall papers in the wholesale stores? Jazz of all kinds is like rubbish of all kinds; it is not likely to last long."

"I have recently been shown great quantities of materials of most unhandsome color and crude design," he said, "things which might suitably be exhibited in a very dark cellar rather than in the light of day or in our homes. I was assured dressmakers were buying them largely. What a home should be like to match such clothing I do not care to think."

"It makes me devoutly trust that skirts of such materials will be nothing like so long as they are today. The human form will certainly occasionally be better to look upon than these monstrosities. They are products of a dangerously decadent movement."

Germany needs many things, but a nerve specialist isn't one of them.

Some FACTS About

Ford
THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Here are authentic figures from the Ford factory at Detroit. They show you just how many Ford cars and trucks have been built each month since January 1, 1921, and how many have been sold to retail customers, in the United States.

	Produced	Delivered to Retail Customers
JANUARY	29,883	57,208
FEBRUARY	35,395	63,603
MARCH	61,886	87,221

Total Production 127,074 Total Retail Sales 208,032

showing that actual sales for the first three months of 1921 exceeded production by 80,958 Ford cars and trucks!

April requisitions already specify 107,719 additional cars and trucks and the estimated April output of the factory and assembly plants combined calls for only 90,000!

These facts clearly show that the demand for Ford products is growing much faster than manufacturing facilities to produce and were it not for the dealers' limited stocks, which are now being rapidly depleted, many more customers would have been compelled to wait for their cars. It will be only a matter of weeks, therefore, until a big surplus of orders will prevent anything like prompt deliveries.

If you would be sure of having your Ford car or truck when you want it, you should place your order now. Don't delay. Phone us or drop us a card.

RANDOM NOTES

SOCIAL : PERSONAL MENTION : CLUBS

The spring cooking class, under the auspices of the Y. W. C. A. Domestic Science Department, Miss Mary Weaver instructor, closed the course of ten lessons by entertaining at a dinner entirely of their own preparation at six o'clock Monday evening, each member bringing a guest.

The dinner was served under Miss Weaver's personal direction in the Domestic Science dining room of the High School, forty-six covers placed on four long tables.

The tables were quite unusual and beautiful, a most artistic decorative idea carried out under the plan and supervision of Miss Bess Cleaveland. In the center were water gardens of yellow pansies and fern, the fern rising in the center and bordered by the velvety flowers. Yellow tapers burned brightly at either end of the table and the place cards bore pretty yellow blooms.

The supper hour joyously progressed through three courses of perfectly planned and most delicious viands, the class showing an expert skill in the culinary art which bore testimony to the success of the course.

The supper will be one of the most appetizing possible and plenty for everybody. Supper tickets will be exchanged for numbers, so that unpleasant crowding will be eliminated. People will be comfortably seated until their numbers are called.

Friday night, April twenty-second is the date chosen by Jimmie Dice's Pepsters for another of their informal dances, popular affairs of the past season, the place, K. of P. Hall, the time, nine o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Hays pleasantly entertained at dinner Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Jess Hankins, of Sedalia; Mr. and Mrs. Galen Kirk, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kirk, Mr. Harry Kirk, of New Holland; Mr. and Mrs. Allen West and Miss Ollie Davidson of Columbus.

With unhappy husbands and wives rushing from all parts of Europe, Fine has become the Reno of Europe, following the enactment of Gabriel d'Annunzio's "divorce-while-you-wait" law. Under this law the poet himself has obtained a divorce after trying in vain elsewhere for 35 years.

In Lugano, Switzerland, d'Annunzio swiftly followed his decree by marrying Signora Luizenza Pacera, a famous 19-year-old beauty and pianist. The poet's marriage came as the culmination of a romance beginning in the World War. When on a canal in Venice, d'Annunzio was enthralled by the sight of the girl, lying at full length in a passing gondola allowing her golden hair to float upon the water.

Following her d'Annunzio obtained an introduction and announced his intention of incorporating a divorce clause in the Flume Constitution in order to marry the only woman with genuine Titian hair.

"Superlative efficiency" was the dominating note in every department of the program at the Middle East district conference at New Philadelphia April 12-13. The event is sure to be always a pleasant memory to those attending owing to the wealth of program material, gracious hospitality of New Philadelphia club women and the added charm of Tuscarawas county valleys and hills. A conspicuous figure in the convention was Mrs. Nellie Stockwell, eighty years old, president of one of the federated clubs of New Philadelphia.

Mrs. William H. Sharp, Columbus, president of the Ohio federation, in her annual district message, incidentally announced the resignation of Miss Alice A. Tyler, Cleveland, head of the library extension committee. She is president of the American Library Association and librarian of Western Reserve university and found the combined duties of all too heavy for her. Miss Alice Boardman, assistant librarian of the Ohio state library, was appointed to fill the vacancy. Club women desiring material can receive aid by communicating with Miss Boardman, state library, Columbus.—Mrs. George Elliott McCormick.

Participation in moonlight automobile rides, "close" dancing, a craving for excitement do not by any means indicate that our young folks are deliberately going to the bad. Often, particularly in small towns, it is all due to just a plain lack of something better to do.

So says the latest Y. W. C. A. movie, "The High Road," based on the experience of the Y. W. C. A. with girls in towns large and small. It gives me pleasure to announce that, because of reductions in the cost of all standard brands of serum, I am making a corresponding cut in the price.

Am sure it will pay you to call me before arranging for immunizing work.

Just remember, however, that price is not the sole consideration; better stand by the tried and true; if you are solicited to make a change, think twice; then decide to let well enough alone.

I have had a longer and larger experience with hog work than any other veterinarian in Ohio, and am the only graduate licensed practitioner in the state who devotes his time and attention exclusively to the hog.

Permit me further to announce that I immunized more than 30,000 pigs in 1920 without one single "break".

Notice to Tax Listers!

Under the law each person, owning or controlling personal property on the 10th day of April, shall list same for taxes on or before May 1st.

Tax blanks for the listing of such property for the year 1921, will be mailed to the rural listers on the 8th of April.

In the city of Washington blanks will be delivered at the homes during this week, so that they may be filled out and returned to the county auditor's office as early as possible after the 10th.

Each return must be signed and sworn to.

For failure to list as directed the law provides penalties to be applied.

Listers are asked to co-operate with the officials in getting their returns in promptly, so as to expedite the great volume of work that has to be done.

You are invited to call on our assistants in the Auditor's office if you deem it necessary.

Guardians, administrators and executors of estates should make their returns early.

The farmers are asked to fill out the agricultural statistics and return with their blank.

All questions on blanks are to be answered in full before return can be accepted.

In the games this year between McClain and Hillsboro the feeling between the rooters of each school became so strong that in one or two games the safety of the players was endangered.

The trouble seems to have started over a professional game of basketball played between teams from the two towns and agitation carried it into the ranks of the high school.

The officials of both McClain and Hillsboro High deeply regret condition of affairs and have reached the agreement in order to bring about a change of attitude.

MAGNESIA ORE IS DISCOVERED IN UPPER ROSS

Plans Made For Erecting Big Plant Within Few Miles of Fayette Border.

Dolomite Ledge To Be Worked by $350,000 Concern Now Being Organized.

Chillicothe, O., April 19.—The Robert C. Byers Company of Columbus, is financing The Abel Magnesia Company, a $350,000 concern, for the purpose of developing a big ledge of magnesia ore which exists in Buckskin township within a few miles of Greenfield. The ledge will be located near the Greenfield.

Magnesia is used in making salt, paint, drugs, chemicals, magnesia metal and magnesia pipe. It is used by lithographers, potters and photographers to a great extent and is also used in making rubber. The city of Akron alone, with its great rubber plants, uses more magnesia annually than is produced in any one of the six plants now in operation in the United States. Magnesia pipe is also coming more and more into general use, being impervious to fire.

A valuable by-product of the plant predicted to be located in Ross county will be calcium carbinate, better known as whiting, or slaked lime. The calcium carbonate is separated from the magnesia during the process of its manufacture from the Dolomite or raw product.

It is estimated that the proposed capitalization of $350,000 will be sufficient to build and operate the plant for sixty days, long enough to place it on a paying basis because of the great demand for the product.

Practically all of the Dolomite deposits in Ross county are in Buckskin township and the new company has a half dozen tracts under lease there as well as in other counties of the state, where the long ledge outcrops.
